FOURTH ASSISTANT SECRETARY TO G... DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT 13 FEB 1947

Sir,

Labour Department - Education - Labour Schools, Bellary Dist. - Appointment of Additional Teachers - Proposals.

The Collector of Bellary has sent proposals for the appointment of additional teachers in the following three labour schools in his district with the requisite particulars:-

Name of School.	Strength.	Average attendance.	No. of teachers working	No of additional teachers required.
1. K. Sugur	52	48	1	1
2. Kakkabevinahalli	65	40	1	1
3. Peddahothur	78	52	2	1

He states that the appointment of additional teachers to these schools was recommended by the District Educational Officer, and that the proposals were examined with reference to rule 71 of Madras Educational Rules. As the average attendance in the Labour School at at Peddalotkur is 52 and as two teachers are already working in that school, I do not consider that a third teacher is necessary for this school.

I, therefore, request that the Government may be pleased to sanction the appointment of an additional Higher Elementary grade teacher to each of the other two single teacher schools.

The expenditure involved can be met from the current year's allotment.

V. Balakrishna

for Commissioner of Labour.
